MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Europe Regional Medical Command (ERMC) Command Policy Letter 32, Implementation of the MEDCOM Circular 40-4

1. References:

a. MEDCOM Circular 40-4, Educational and Developmental Intervention Services: Early Intervention Services, 17 January 2001.

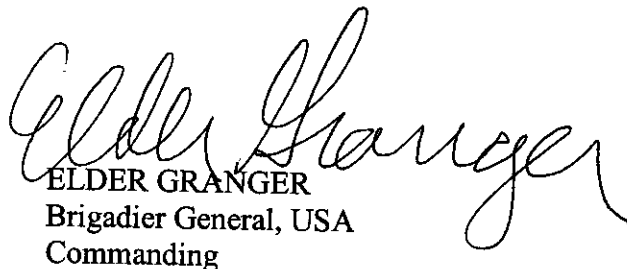

b. MEDCOM Extension Memo, extending the MEDCOM Circular 40-4 until 1 October 2003.

2. The MEDCOM Cir. 40-4 provides policy and implementing instructions for Early Intervention Services (EIS) provided by the Army Medical Department as part of Educational and Developmental Intervention Services (EDIS).

3. The delivery of quality Early Intervention Services to infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities and their families depends on standardized implementation of family-centered procedures as outlined the MEDCOM Circular 40-4. Accordingly, staff providing Early Intervention Services in the ERMC must adhere with practices defined in the MEDCOM Circular 40-4.

4. As part of EDIS orientation procedures, all staff providing Early Intervention Services must become familiar with the procedures set forth in the MEDCOM Circular 40-4. The MEDCOM Circular 40-4 is available online at www.armyedis.com

5. The proponent for this policy is the ERMC EFMP/EDIS at DSN 371-3380.
